

It is all about you.

Finding the right fit in a college – the college at which you will thrive and reach your academic and personal potential, the college that will best prepare you for success – is one of the most important decisions you will make.

Finding the right fit is all about you. It's about who you are and what matters to you. It's about your dreams and expectations – of yourself and your college experience, both in and out of the classroom.

Women's colleges are dedicated to giving you not only some opportunities, but every opportunity. At women's colleges, all of the resources – from top faculty and sophisticated research equipment to athletic facilities, from leadership, internship, community service and study abroad opportunities to fellowship funding – are focused on you. And a women's college education proves its value over a lifetime by developing the critical skills necessary for success in graduate school, in your career, and in your community.

Women's colleges. We are all about you.
